Ofsted-January 2024

As a teacher at Nishkam School West London, you will work in a pioneering group, Nishkam School Trust (NST). NST is one of the first multi-academy free school trusts in the UK. The Trust has opened two free schools in Birmingham (a primary in 2011 and a secondary in 2012), both of which are judged Ofsted Outstanding, and a third, a primary free school in Wolverhampton. The Trust continues to expand and has recently welcomed another primary school in Derby into the Nishkam family. We are looking for a highly committed and innovative leader to work in close collaboration with other teachers in both the secondary and primary phases across the Trust.

NST has developed an inclusive, virtues-led, multi-faith educational approach that nurtures pupils of all faiths and those of no particular faith. The Nishkam ethos is to help grow a selfless mindset, aspiring to excellence as well as going beyond ourselves to serve others, to create supportive communities and to realise our true potential. This pervades every aspect of the school.

- The school environment is very calm and the behaviour of the pupils is good overall. Leadership team works hard and is approachable and supportive if you need any help or guidance.

- Regular staff and department meetings ensure all teachers are updated regularly to ensure high quality teaching is being delivered. Additionally, professional development training is provided as a means to guide and support teachers in the classroom. This helps teachers to discuss and explore different teaching strategies they may want to implement into their own teaching.
- Leaders at Nishkam are empathetic, compassionate and encourage excellence in a way that corresponds to individual ambitions.
- I am proud to work at this school and feel that SLT as a whole is really supportive and help me reach my goals.

FAQs:

What if I do not know a lot about the Sikh faith?

We are a multi-faith school with a Sikh ethos. Working at NSWL will allow you to have a better understanding of the Sikh faith and its teachings. We have a number of staff that are non-faith and some who have a deep faith. We expect candidates to be comfortable with the idea of faith and to be open to learning from other faiths.

I'm moving from an inner London to school to an outer London school, will the school take this into consideration when discussing salary expectations?

We are looking for talented, ambitious and committed staff. We will consider existing salaries when deciding on a salary offer for any successful candidate. In specific circumstances, we can support staff with relocation costs.

What is the ambition for the school?

We want to provide a caring and nurturing environment for both staff and students whilst also achieving incredible outcomes for our young people. We provide a wealth of enrichment activities for our students, much of this brought in so that it does not add to staff workload. We want to provide a safe space for students to explore their faith and to also learn from other religions. We want to create well rounded selfless citizens. "Seva" or service is a key element of what we do. Students do a huge amount for charities and for others each and every day at this school. We want to show that we can be one of the highest attaining schools in the country with a happy staff and student body.

What do you do for staff-wellbeing?

The single biggest impact on staff workload is lesson planning, delivery and marking. Our ambition is to reduce contact time and teaching time for staff to allow them to plan good quality lessons and provide strong feedback for our students. The majority of our staff are not on their full teaching load allocation. We also have staff wellbeing workshops on our training days (last year staff have Ukulele workshops). We have staff social events including the rather competitive staff Easter Egg hunt! We have well-being breakfast mornings where we provide pastries and coffees for staff. We provide gym membership for our staff.

What is the behaviour like in the school?

Our students are courteous and respectful. Conversations to address poor conduct start with reference to our 45 virtues which the students are well versed in referring too. Where conversations alone do not work, we have robust systems in place to ensure that students are focused and engaged in their learning. Walking around the school site, you will see students in lessons, engaged in their learning and listening to their teachers.

Is there anything else that I should know?

We provide free charging for electrical vehicles owned by our staff. We have 18 charge points on the school site. We also offer free gym membership at Grasshoppers RFC to all staff members.

I've not had a TLR before and I have limited leadership experience, can I still apply?

If you are secure in your own classroom practice and think you are ready to make the next steps, then yes. We have regular CPD for our middle leaders and a dedicated coaching programme delivered by an external coach who visits the site each half term to work with staff on a programme that is bespoke to each middle leader.

What should I do if I am still undecided about applying?

Give us a call. We are happy to have you visit and speak to our staff about their experiences. Come and see our school in operation and meet our wonderful students. Have the conversation and air your concerns. We are happy to run through things in more detail or to answer further questions about the school.
